The CREST Symposium

Cross and Inter-disciplinary Research Conversations

Tuesday 10th September 2013

Main Hall, Woburn House, London

Programme

9.30 – 10.30 Coffee and tea

10.30 – 10.40 Welcome – CREST in 2013
Prof Chris Gaskell, Principal, Royal Agricultural University and CREST Chair

10.40 – 11.00 CREST Researcher Mobility Fund Activity: Design and pitch your seminar
Chair: Dr Andy Dixon, Head of Research and CREST Director

11.00 – 12.30 Poster Presentations: Session I

Under the Skin: Investigating the implications of bio-medical imaging on patients
Catherine Baker, Norwich University of the Arts

Small-scale farmers and climate change: Opportunities and barriers to community engagement
Sara Burbi, Royal Agricultural University

Can tourism deliver peace through corporate and sustainable responsibility practices? The case of Kenya and Haiti
Cornelia Butler and Dr Hugues Séraphin, University of Winchester

'Research Work'/'Research Works!': Cultural well-being and the historical investigation of 'work'
Di Drummond, Leeds Trinity University

Missed Opportunities: Educational change and teachers' identities
Eunice Kimarilo, University of Worcester

The Doors of Perception: An enquiry into the spirit of place
Ethan Pennell, Plymouth College of Art

The Impact of a Participant-Centred Sport for Social Change Project in the UK
Daniel Potter, University of Chichester

12.30 – 13.15 Transition to digital and open research environment: Challenges and opportunities
Maja Maricevic, Head of Higher Education, British Library

13.15 – 14.00 Lunch

14.00 – 15.15 Funding opportunities
Jean Cater, Assistant Director, Leverhulme Trust
Christopher Hassan, Medical Humanities, Wellcome Trust

15.15 – 16.45 Poster Presentations: Session II (tea and coffee top-up)

The Human Touch: The enchantment of objects and the mechanics of gameplay within art & design
Jaygo Bloom, Norwich University of the Arts

Putting it into practice: Bridging the gap between learning and doing
Stephen Felmingham, Plymouth College of Art

Living up to our students' expectations: Using student voice to influence the way academics think about their undergraduates learning and their own teaching
Lorna Goodwin, St Mary's University College and Yvette Wharton, University of Abertay

Development of a low-input farming system in the South West of England
Karen Rial Lovera (presenting), Nicola Cannon, Paul W Davies and John Conway, Royal Agricultural University

Amazonian Shamanism in Britain
Kerry Rowberry, University of Cumbria

Ageing, physical activity and class
Sue Stuart, Bucks New University

The effect of carvacrol, thymol and eugenol vapour on the growth of Escherichia coli
Nieky Van Veggel, Writtle College

16.45 – 17.30 Design as Human Interface and the Creative Challenge: Presentations
Chair: Tom Simmons, Royal College of Art and Norwich University of the Arts

17.30 – 17.45 CREST Resources 2013/14
Dr Alisa Miller, Senior Policy Advisor (Research & Innovation), GuildHE and CREST Research Network Coordinator
Rachel Brockhurst, GuildHE Project Officer

17.45 – 18.00 CREST Researcher Mobility Fund presentation, wrap up and thanks

18.00 – 19.00 Drinks reception